

Colibri®

THE ALL NATURAL WOOL PROTECTOR

Colibri sachets create a cocoon of protective natural fragrances which will keep wool, silk and other precious fabrics safe. While protecting your clothes Colibri, with its natural formula, will freshen them with a light, clean fragrance.

Colibri is an established, safe and reliable product used with success over many years.

For the most effective results, it is recommended that Colibri sachets be used year round.

Replace every six months.

Colibri sachets contain 100% pure botanical essences from eucalyptus citriodora, vetiver, peppermint, clove, lemongrass and with added lavender oil in coconut shell powder base.

Colibri does not contain animal elements and has not been tested on animals.

Colibri is packaged in recycled cotton paper. Colibri is hand produced with care for the environment and concern for social development in Tamil Nadu, India.
